SALVATION, WHAT IS IT?

It is not an intricate problem! It is not a subtle mystery! It is not a mental imagination! It is not a passing proposition. What is it? It is God's plan to restore man into His own image. Salvation provides three things.

1. Vision.—It opens the spiritual eyes to see the invisible things. Men engrossed in sensual pursuits are blind and ignorant. The cataract of sin upon their sight becomes darker and darker until their whole being is absorbed in the practice of their animal propensities. What better are they than the brute beasts, do we not say? The opening of the sinner's eyes and the unstoppage of his spiritual ears, produces a viewpoint that causes him to react against sin, and make him an enemy of remorse to seek for a deliverance.

2. Recration.—This is an extreme statement; it is nevertheless true. The Bible declares (new version) "If any man be in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away, behold all things have become new." A new mind; the man thinks differently. A new ambition; his desires are changed. A new love; the things he once loved, now he hates, and the things he once hated now he loves.

He is enframed. His leases have become galls. He has an unapakable joy that nothing can disturb. Inter-course with the Highest may be his constant experience. He is a new man, in a new world, with the brightest prospects of a changing environment—for the better—all the way from earth to Heaven and hereafter.

3. Conquest.—He is a conqueror. First of all he conquers himself. The old passionate blaspheming tongue is changed to one of praise to God. His oaths and curses have ceased. His lusts and appetites are under control, and are legitimately used and not abused. Self-domination has begun. At his will, the self-life is sacrificed. He conquers the world than himself. In his power, he proclaims another's personal loss. He grows in grace, thereby He conquers others. The subtle spiritual aroma of his life is irresistible. He becomes a winner of souls. Strong wills are brought into subjection to Christ, through his influence.

He conquers temptation. He conquers circumstances. He conquers the enemy of his soul who would gladly destroy him. He will ultimately conquer death and rise triumphantly a conqueror at last. Have you tried Salvation? Do you believe it? If not, be a seeker; begin to-day. The Royal Road to the Kingdom of Christ. Take a good long look at Calvary, until your vision is affected. Then see the marvellous things of God in true perspective. At any rate, do not say there is nothing in Salvation until you have been honest enough to try its healing and satisfying qualities.

BIBLE MESSAGES

"He brought me to the banqueting house, and His banner over me was Love."—Solomon's Song II. 4.

"And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after Me, is not worthy of Me."—Matthew x. 38

Getting Rid of Christ

"And they besought Him that He would depart out of their coasts."

Matthew viii. 34.

SURELY this is one of the most astounding prayers on record. Jesus had come over the sea for the purpose of blessing the people of Gadara, and the only thanks He received for so doing was a request to go away again.

He had healed a poor maniac, casting out the devils which had long possessed him. This proved too much for the people. They could not endure to have such a miracle worker in their midst. They preferred to keep their herds of swine on the mountains and their maniacs among the tombs rather than have Christ in their midst.

In the mauer to-day, Jesus is not welcome.

The secular employments of some people would be strangely upset if Christ came into the midst of them. There are certain businesses which are an contrary to the laws of God that Christ would denounce them.

Taking them at Their Word.

Pharach said to Moses: "Get from me, see my face no more!" To which Moses, the faithful servant of God, replied: "Thou hast spoken well; thou shalt see my face no more!" The Jews rejected the Salvation message from the lips of Paul and Barnabas, which led the evangelist to say: "Seeing ye put the Word of God from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, lo! we turn to the Gentiles." To reject the faithful servant of God is a serious thing, but to reject the professed redemption of Christ Himself is fatal beyond words.

The reason of Christ's departure is that the soul is simply left to its devils and its deadness.

Satisfied Sinners.

Sinners are not always grateful when the Saviour is introduced to them. They do not wish to be disturbed, or annoyed, or aroused. They are perfectly satisfied with things as they are—with swine in the mountains, and maniacs in the graveyards. Some missionaries were driven off by the natives of an Indian village, who said, "Get up and be off; this is our place; you must not intrude into our place!"

They sinners reject the Saviour. They wish to be let alone; to remain undisturbed in their sins.

Religion that is of the right sort is always revolutionary, and is therefore resented by worldly people. The Apostles did not resolve benedictions when they turned the world upside down! Cities have not always crowded their benefactors; more often than not they have martyred them.

So, to-day, there is often organized opposition against Christ, and attempts made to keep Him out of public as well as private life. And the terrible truth is that these worldlings are often allowed to have their own way!

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

"With God and a good conscience you need not fear the difficulties of the path of faith. Look up, take courage and go forward."

THE GREAT CALL:

"Tis the Voice of Jesus,

By Mrs. Bridget Arnold.

Hark! Hear the Great Call! Through the earth it is resounding, Where sin's ravages abounding, Bring us to their destruction. Strength and salvation thy nation; Sin of lowest type degrading, All who yield to its persuading; Sin in circles that are higher, Draw us to the depths of despair. For no sin with God is trifling. Man may live his conscience slitting, But such journey to the tomb Endeth in an awful doom.

Hark! Hear the Great Call! Through the earth it is resounding, To mankind in all nations, To the workman at his labor, To his wife and children, To his neighbors and the mothers, To the latest born of brood, To the weak and sickly dying, To the strong and death-defying, To the hardened, deep-dyed sinner, The youthful new beginner; Calling, calling everywhere! Calling people unto conversion!

Hark! Hear the Great Call!

"Tis the voice of Jesus calling, Tenderly His accents falling, His still small voice continues pleading.

By His thorn-crowned brow all blushing;

By His hands and feet nail-driven;

By the cruel torture given;

As He bled, as He weeping, bearing,

As His long-drawn agony,

On the Cross for you and me,

Saints and sinners all before Him!

KEEP THYSELF PURE

There is so much said of the keeping Power of God that one is led to deprecate the human efforts that are evidently of esential consequence. If any man fails to watch and pray and keep himself, trusting only in the Divine keeping, he will fail. The work of Salvation from conversion to Glory is a Divine effort, not a man's. Man should act as though he were his own keeper, using every means to protect himself from the onslaughts of evil; thus trusting the Divine Spirit he will assuredly grow in grace. Many Service-men, travelling as they are in all parts of the world, entering towns where they are strangers, are the subjects of dire temptation. The Devil often says: "It does not matter how you are not known," and victory over sin is lost. This is especially true of Naval and Military Lasciviousness, which is well known.

"Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil!" If they visit localities where broken women entice them, or where vice is blatant in vice-free, without first committing their way unto God, what hope is there for them? Man is in many instances the arbiter of his own destiny. The Apostle Paul's injunctions may well be observed: "Fight the good fight of faith and lay hold on victory."

The 107 who on Sunday morning failed to attend church may not be accommodated at the arranged mercantile service, so some of them perambulate the streets, where a Bandman, there a woman, there a girl, are dancing to the strains of a band, and singing a song in the Songsters, or tooting in the Bands, and is hardly fighting it, who he added.

Prayer Meetings here in Switzerland last anything from an hour to two hours, and are well attended.

And that was not to much time for the purpose this morning. These Swiss people feel and think deeply, and when they do, they do it with conviction and power.

It is with them to contrite hearts, often with tears streaming down their faces and bosom; however,

Inspiring Rally Day Services—Six Seekers

The Young People's Rally Sunday was a time of Meeting and Inspiration. Every branch of the Corps entered into the spirit of the times. From the prayer circle service at 10 a.m. till the benediction at the night service all present felt the power and presence of the Spirit of God. The Young People's Company meeting was held for an extra half hour in the large Hall amongst the Band and Singers. The Band played a march while the children and young people marched in. What a warm welcome they received. The special song sung by them was a great source of inspiration to the Seniors. Young People's Sergeant-Major J. Robertson outlined the work that is done among the Young People, starting with the Citadel Roll and ending at Sunbeam School.

Folowing this a timely address was given by Commandant Squaresbridge on the words "Attend, behave, consider."

The evening service was conducted by Adjutant and Mrs. Clayton. Again the Rally Day spirit of helpfulness was felt. The Adjutant gave a most powerful and convincing talk on the training of our men and its proper training and led great interest upon the family and home religious life for the Young People citing from past history the names of men who had made their mark in the world.

Then the call for men and women to come to Christ was made and the procession started with the band and was welcomed from the rear. She was followed by several others; a total of six seekers being registered. The day finished with grand results for the Young People and Seniors. Things are on the up grade at the Temple.

Interesting Harvest Festival Services—Six Seekers

The Harvest Festival has been, on record, Band and Mrs. Spooner or conducted the Harvest Festival weekend services. Large crowds attended and stirring addresses were given. Mrs. Ensign Leurle and Spooner sang a duet. Adjutant Clayton played the organ, and strolls could make the most of the harvest.

The decoration of the Citadel with fruit, flowers and ferns made it very attractive.

The Young People gave a short program of music and song in the afternoon and Ensign Spooner took fruit and vegetables and spoke on each, making a splendid object lesson bringing out different characteristics of boy and girl.

The rally on Monday night brought in $112, making the total for the Effort up to $751.15.

Adjutant and Mrs. Burton

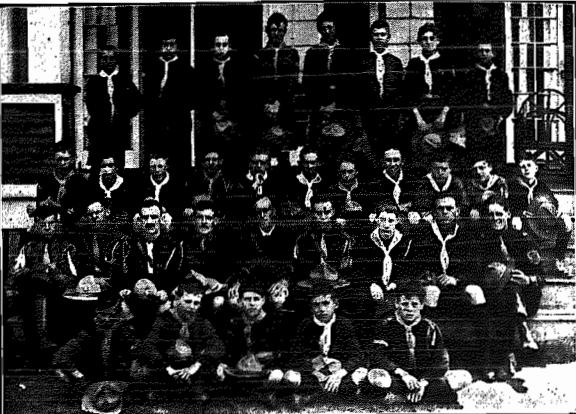

We are glad to be able once again to report that at the Peter Corp. the banner of God has been upon us and we have seen many evidences of the power of the Holy Spirit in our midst. Bandmen and Singers are turning up well to the open-air and the God.

pet story is told in song and testimony to good crowds.

We have been pleased to welcome back to our midst two comrades who are at present on furlough. Captain D. W. McNaughton and Captain R. G. Williams, both Engineers and Personnel, and their ringing testimonies and words of exhortation have been of great help and encouragement.

Our Young People's work is progressing well, although we had to postpone Ensign McNaughton's Young People's Officer course. We have done splendidly with the Junior section of the Corps as well as a great deal of behind-the-scenes work in the Senior Corps and her influence will be felt for a long time to come.

The Harvest Festival Effort has been well taken care of by the Officers and Comrades. Our target of $255 has been reached and we are aiming at $800 before the Effort closes.

ST. STEPHEN
Adjutant and Mrs. Davis

Our Harvest Festival weekend was a time of rejoicing. The Citadel and its members, having done some work with the comrades, worked hard to make the Effort a success. The sale began on Monday night but it stormed so bad that it had to be continued on Tuesday night.

God called him while at his carpenter's bench and we pray that like His Master, he will go about doing good. On Thursday before he went, we had a special service with Church Staff-Captains MacDowell presiding.

A FRUITFUL SEVEN YEARS

From November 1914 to November 1921 the Salvation Army in Canada East has made vigorous growth under the command of Commissioner Richards

GOD-HONORING ACHIEVEMENTS IN ALL BRANCHES OF THE WORK

INCREASES ON EVERY HAND—ABOUNDING VITALITY AND VIGOROUS GROWTH
GIVE SPLENDID PROMISES FOR THE FUTURE

THE seven years which have elapsed since Commissioner Richards took command of The Salvation Army in Canada East, form the most eventful years in the history of The Army in the Land of the Maple Leaf.

To attempt anything like a record of the achievements would be another out of question, for even a bare category of happenings would more than fill every page of a whole "War Cry". Not the least of these achievements is the most outstanding feature that should be mentioned, so that in gaining acquaintance with these the reader will be able to understand the forward march with which Commissioner Richards' Command must be credited.

Perhaps nothing is so remarkable as the manner in which the means available to the army have increased. The knowledge that amid all the exigencies of the war first things have been kept first, and nothing whatever has been sacrificed in the cause of spiritual renewals. What nobler tribute to the value of the work done by the forces under Commissioner Richards can be imagined? In the seven years he has served no fewer than 63,000 persons have kept at our penitent farms within the Canada East Territory!

We have 1,200 more soldiers and sailors and recruits upon our Rolls ready to when the Commissioner assumed the command seven years ago. The difference with the number of Adherents on our books is now 12,784.

These figures are the more significant when it is borne in mind that just after the Commissioner's arrival, the generation of Canada West from the Eastern Territory meant a very considerable number of recruits.

We are not investigating this there are now in active service in the East 142 more Officers and Employees than were in the combined Territories seven years ago.

Confidante of Officers

It will not be considered out of place to say right here that one of the causes why Commissioner Richards is loved by his officers is his personal interest in them which he has always watched things which concern them. To know that his Officers were willing to sacrifice and endure hardships for the sake of the Commissioner. He saw the need of placing them upon a better footing, and there has been a result of careful consideration of what would be best for the welfare of these officers, a substantial improvement in the pay scale, a better footing, and so forth which will give them the means to support their families.

Methodical as the Commissioner is known to be in so many other things it will be noted that he keeps a record of his journeys from one year's end to another together with the mileage he has traveled and some of the visits which he has made.

Compared with the opportunities for worldly advancement that are available around the position of a Salvation Army Officer, the record is indeed startling. Of whom 10,747 have been accepted into the Citadel, the early case of self-sacrifice, but that stage in the development of the Organization has now been reached where privation does not go unremunerated. Brother Thomas Waters collected $135 and Brother G. Rutherford $31. The following Sunday one seeker came forward.

No one will, we are sure, suppose that the mere increase in money counts for much with Salvation Army men. The increase in money for which I thank the Commissioner, is the opportunity for greater application to the work in hand which is harder than ever before from under circumstances financial adverse.

What is sometimes regarded as the more material side of things in the realm of money and property is the increase in buildings and equipment within the Territory that looked from the standpoint of cause or effect is equally gratifying. What cannot be measured is the increase in the way little can be done, at any rate in the way of sustained effort; on the other hand there is no better way to do the work than to have a large amount of equipment.

The share which the Commissioner took in the noble work done by The Army in connection with the Great War will be fresh in the public mind. The Maternity Hospital in St. John's, Newfoundland, is unique in its kind and will cost about $100,000.

Taking everything into consideration the way in which we have done more buildings and more repairing and maintaining of existing buildings and the better housing facilities have had a great deal to do with the success of our work in many places. The Commissioner's efforts have been directed to encourage any good scheme where there has been any possibility of financing the same, and has put in a great deal of thought and hard work in connection with the housing of The Army.

Women's Social

Speaking of the Women's Social Work in the light of statistics and the number of buildings and victories achieved a writer has exclaimed "What rivers of tears have been dried off! What stress of mind relieved! What heads turned! How many broken lives mended! What a blessing to the community as well as an unfolding of boundless joy to the field and the needs of the world."

Women's Social Work

Work in the light of statistics and the number of buildings and victories achieved a writer has exclaimed "What rivers of tears have been dried off! What stress of mind relieved! What heads turned! How many broken lives mended! What a blessing to the community as well as an unfolding of boundless joy to the field and the needs of the world."

The Jackson Point Camp has been erected and so forth since the Commissioner came. It is almost a small village in itself. There are seventeen small cottages, a large hall, a mess room, a kitchen, a dining room and a bath house. There is a separate pavilion and kitchen for the Life Savers. There is also a dormitory addition for the children from Children's Home. There is a Manager's house, a fully equipped garage, an engine room and a heat house. Fourteen to five hundred persons have been caring for the sick in the hospital during the time the Western Territory was one with the Eastern Territory.

During the Commissioner's seven years 7,450 women and girls, 8,471 children and 1,000 men have been given employment. The Betheda Hospital, of which only 148 are reported as proving unsatisfactory. From our two Employment Bureaus, 63,124 women have been given employment during the seven years.

The Grace Hospital, Ontario, and the Maternal Hospital, Sydney, have been opened and initial ventures in social operations have been made in these cities. Both Institutions are well patronized, and the service given is much appreciated by the medical profession as well as the general public.

In Windsor the citizens have recently voted a grant of $60,000 for the extension of the Hospital, which will increase the accommodation from twenty-eight to eighty beds.

The Bethesda Hospital, London, Ontario, has been opened to meet the need occasioned by the development of our Maternity Work, and with the old building provides accommodation of fifty beds.

At Chatham, Ontario, we have erected Junior Halls expressly for the Young People's Work.

Wee Emma and the Way Out

WHEN Wilson came home and told his wife that he had been included amongst the hands "out" that day, he smiled broadly, touched his chest, and mirthfully mentioned the fact that he would "pick up another job on Monday all right." But his wife experienced a sudden sinking at the heart—a subtle feeling of nausea; it was—and the sun seemed to have gone behind a cloud somewhere. Mrs. Wilson was afraid.

And so was her husband, really, only he would not confess to anything of the sort. Wilson sought to maintain his front. It was worse than those days in the trenches.

Keeping Up Hope

"Just for the time being, little woman," he said in the course of the fourth week, "I suggest that we manage with only one room"; he patted her on the arm with an affection which had grown with the economic tension.

"Little woman," he said smiling bravely, just as he had done that day when they took him prisoner over there, "we are not done yet. Keep your head up. There's that one that underwrites."

On the fourteenth payless Saturday, Mrs. W.—quite broke down. Six children were put to bed in their "all-room" home, and now she had made a good inspection of their clothing.

"Look, Oh, look," she whispered, "I can't mend these any more, can I? They are worn thin as nets. And just look at these bits of leather! We have not got one sound boot amongst us. And with a muffed sob she laid her aching head on her husband's aching shoulder, while their tortured souls trod the way of sorrow untilable."

Mother Crying

Emma, the girl of six, opened a wondering eye and gasped in an amazement heretofore unknown. What was this? Her brave Mumma crying?

"Mumma," she began, "can I tell you about a woman I saw?" Her face was all wet with tears, cos she had been crying; and one of The Army ladies came by and spoke to her, and took her into the house with the white curtains. And when the woman came out again I saw her and she was smiling a bit, and all the tears were dry."

ONE JOURNEY ONLY THROUGH LIFE

We pass this way but once;
The ripened harvest while
Has waited long.
The reapers' song;
There's no way but once;
There's work to be done for;
The needy stand
On every hand
And sigh for sympathy.

SAHERI'S SURRENDER

The oldest son of an honoured Japanese family, Saheri learned the wisdom of Buddha early in life, studying under the tuition of venerated priests whose one consuming passion was the spreading of ideas which were old a thousand years ago. They hated anything new and all the concentrated fury of their old age descended upon the foreigners who preached the name of Christ.

"Your son or not your son," wrote Saheri in reply, "I am the son of King Jesus and must obey Him."

"Christianity is to destroy Japan," he said to the foreigner, and his plastic mind soon conceived a hatred for the Christians almost as strong as that of his teachers.

Saheri tried to be good.

Saheri was an Officer in Japan with years of splendid service to his credit and great hopes for the future of the Army in his beloved country. He knew now that true Christians love Japan as they love the world and its millions of people for whom salvation the Saviour died.

HOW SHE WON HER ONE

How the one-by-one spirit takes hold of Salvationists who are entirely isolated from their comrades is illustrated by an incident in the life of Corps-Cadet Christine Saller, a daughter of Lieutenant and Mrs. Saller.

Our young comrade, who has been living in a village far removed from any Salvation Army Corps, had prayed for a long time for the conversion of her companion, and on a recent night she took her to her first Army service—the Holmes Meeting at Chilton—and had the joy of seeing her kneel at the mercy-seat. It is worth recalling that for some years now the Corps Cadet has, during each Self-Denial Effort, secured permission from the vicar of the parish to stand at the church doors and take up a collection towards her target.

Tamer Conquered

A workman told of his violent temper conquered by the love of Christ. A student spoke of his desire for self being all changed into a passion for serving others when Jesus entered his heart.

Saheri's soul was touched and his pride surrendered. He admitted that these people possessed a power which he desired and could not find outside Christ Jesus, and the Buddhas!

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. Why do Reports from certain Corps appear so frequently, while other Corps only have Reports in at rare intervals?

A. It is a question of supply, we are always on the lookout for Corps news.

Try this:

What will it cost me to have the "War Cry" mailed to my home address each week for one year?

A. $250 paid in advance takes the "War Cry" to any address in Canada for one year.

Q. May I include an incident in my Corps Reports sometimes, or do you prefer such additions unnamed?

A. Friend, the arrival of a Corps Report with a useful incident in it always puts a bit of blue in the Editorial sky. Ours is a big sky however, and the blue runs short at times, so you can help us greatly by sending in word of what happens your way.

When the dolings of some twentieth century Caesar are forgotten and dead, the mite of some widow given out of love will be heralded worldwide. It is God's way.

What shall I eat; how shall I dress;

how can I gratify my passions; how can I be petted and honoured? are all questions that baffle littleness of mind.

It does not pay to live in the shadow when there is as much of sunshine in the world.

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO "WAR CRY."

In places where the Army is at work our paper may be obtained weekly from the Corps Commanding Officer or Adjutant General. Any Salvation Army Postman will be glad to supply "The War Cry" if from time to time "The War Cry" cannot be obtained in this way, we will be glad to send it direct. For subscription rates apply to the Postmaster, Salvation Army Temple, Albert Street, Toronto, Ontario.

MAJOR MARY BOOTH

D. H. Arnott. The audience carried that vote with an enthusiasm seldom seen in British audiences. The white audience arose to its feet and cheered the little Major to the echo.

Mrs. Arnott, in reply, stated that she was very grateful to London for the reception given her and that she would ask her father when she returned home to make a point of visiting this city.

She then told of her experiences during the late war. She, like many other Salvation Army women, was assigned to a special hospital ward in France, and never before in the history of wars has such a service been rendered as those women rendered.

The theatre was again filled for the evening meeting and hundreds were turned away. The Major gave a thrilling address and during the prayer meeting forty-five socks were given.

The Chief Secretary and Lieut-Colonel Wedderburn conducted the prayer meeting and the Local Soldiers worked well. The City Bands rendered most appreciated service, and numbers of Soldiers were present from Woodstock, Ingersoll, and other centres.

A. Crichton, Brigadier.

Newspaper has been received by Mrs. Adjutant Trickey that her mother has died. Mrs. Mary Ann (McLean) Grant, Newfoundlander. We pray for the beloved members of the family. Mrs. Trickey herself, has been in poor health for some time. Our sympathies are extended to her at this time.
